Many people ask "What does the future hold for the Riverdale Fire Department?" It's not easily answered, but one thing is certain, without the dedication and commitment of the Volunteers, there would be no future.

If you have read through the department's history, feel inspired, think you have something to offer your community, and can handle the camaraderie, excitement, and exhilaration that comes with being part of our department, we encourage you to stop by and check us out.

Because.... Our Future Lies in YOU!!!
